The Messiah and the Psalms

Preaching Christ from all the Psalms

Richard P. Belcher, Jr.

RELEASE DATE 20 SEPTEMBER 2014

RELATED TITLES

DESCRIPTION

AUTHOR

Richard P. Belcher, Jr. is the John D. and Frances M. Gwin Professor of Old Testament and the Academic Dean at Reformed Theological Seminary Atlanta. He is the author of 'The Messiah and the Psalms', as well as commentaries on Genesis, Job and Ecclesiastes and has a decade of pastoral experience.

ENDORSEMENTS

Belcher successfully combines scholarship and devotion. His rigorous study of the psalms fuels passion for Christ. The reader cannot fail to derive much benefit from using this book as a guide to a Christian understanding and use of all Psalter.

New Life
Australia's Christian Newspaper

The Psalter is a most important book of the Old Testament in terms of its testimony to Christ. Richard Belcher explores this theme against the background of his wide knowledge of modern psalm scholarship while succesfully avoiding too much use of technical language. His love for Christ and Scripture are evident and he expounds psalms representative of particular genres, considering various ways each has been handled in terms of its application to Christ. He is convinced that every psalm contains a Messianic element, although not all will agree with his identification of this in every instance.

Geoffrey Grogan
(1925-2011), Principal of Glasgow Bible College and well-respected author

TECHNICAL DETAILS

LARGE TRADE PAPERBACK
288 Pages

ISBN 9781845500740
BISAC REL067040
PRICE £11.99 $19.99