Relevance of Amos' message for today

AUTHOR

Bob Fyall retired as Senior Tutor at Cornhill, Scotland and Associate Minister at the Tron Church, Glasgow, a few years ago. He also ministered in Durham for many years both pastoring a church and teaching in Theological College. In retirement he continues to write and preach as opportunity offers.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is an invaluable little book, worth every penny, giving practical help in moving from text to sermon and then in planning a preaching series, and in all of these ways meeting real need. It also brings us face to face with the God of Amos. I'm sure that anyone, at whatever age and stage of preaching and teaching ministry, could derive much benefit from this book and so will their hearers.

The Rutherford Journal of Church and Ministry

The need of the hour is Bible knowledge. When knowledge fails, faith fails, and we are shaped instead by cultural forces alien to God. This teaching series, written by skilled and trustworthy students of God's word, helps us to understand the Bible, believe it and obey it. I commend it to all Bible readers, but especially those whose task it is to teach the inspired word of God.

Peter Jensen
Retired Archbishop of Sydney, Sydney, Australia

North India desperately needs men and women who will preach and teach the Bible faithfully and PT's Teaching series is of great value in encouraging them to do just that.

Isaac Shaw
Executive Director, Delhi Bible Institute, New Delhi, India

The Teaching series is a great resource for Bible study leaders and pastors, indeed for any Christian who wants to understand their Bible better.

Mark Dever
Senior Pastor, Capitol Hill Baptist Church and President, 9Marks.org, Washington, DC
