Afterwards I Knew

Stories from the First and Second World Wars.

Christine Farenhorst

RELEASE DATE 20 MAY 2010

RELEASE DATE

RELATED TITLES

AUTHOR

Well–known Christian author and poet from Bloomingdale, Ontario, Christine Farenhorst was married to her dearly beloved Anco for almost 53 years before he suddenly passed away. They have five children, twenty–nine grandchildren and seven great–grandchildren. A columnist for 'Reformed Perspective' and a contributing writer for 'Christian Renewal', her last book, 'The New Has Come', (2022), is a novel set on the island of Schiermonnikoog during WWII.

ENDORSEMENTS

"There is a strength, beauty and simplicity to the descriptive prose that carries readers into the lives of the characters during living during the tumult of war, with ethical decisions to make. While based in history, the stories themselves are fictional, easily read and profitably digested, and providing food for soul."

Christian Renewal

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK
208 Pages
Reading Age: 12-14

ISBN 9781845505639
BISAC YAF051030
PRICE £5.99 $8.99