

Philippians: Rejoicing and Thanksgiving

David Chapman

RELEASE DATE 20 MARCH 2012

MARKETING POINTS

- An autobiography and theology of Paul
- Paul's focus on Christ and his pastoral concern
- Read of Paul's deep-seated joy in Christ

AUTHOR

David Chapman is Associate Professor of New Testament and Archaeology at Covenant Theological Seminary in St Louis, Missouri. His interests include running and hiking.

ENDORSEMENTS

"My prayer is that the reader will better know and serve our Lord through considering anew Paul's letter to the church in Philippi."

David Chapman

Associate Professor of New Testament and Archaeology at Covenant Theological Seminary in St Louis, Missouri.

"David Chapman's Philippians commentary represents the finest scholarship directed by a pastoral heart well in tune with both the struggles the apostle consistently faced and also the Gospel joy he ceaselessly embraced."

Bryan Chapell

Pastor, Grace Presbyterian Church, Peoria, Illinois

RELATED TITLES

- 9781857929355 ~~£9.99~~ $15.99
- 9781781911297 ~~£12.99~~ $19.99
- 9781857924527 ~~£8.99~~ $14.99

TECHNICAL DETAILS

- LARGE TRADE PAPERBACK
- 288 Pages
- ISBN 9781845506872
- BISAC REL006070
- PRICE £9.99 $15.99