Billy Graham: Just get up out of your Seat

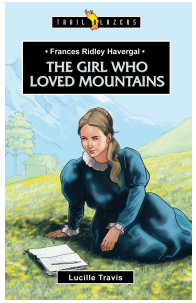

Catherine MacKenzie

RELEASE DATE 20 JULY 2012

RELATED TITLES

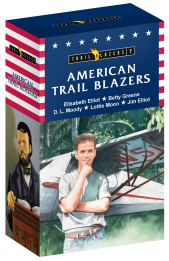

9781781915226
£5.99 $8.99

9781527105294
£5.99 $8.99

9781527105232
£24.99 $39.99

DESCRIPTION

Communism and Apartheid, Segregation and Terrorism – Billy Graham has faced up to all Christianity's major opponents of the twentieth century. From paying the bail money to get Martin Luther King out of jail to addressing the memorial service in Washington after the collapse of the World Trade centre, Billy Graham has been there for people with practical help and a message of hope that is timeless.

AUTHOR

Catherine MacKenzie comes from Scotland and has written several biographies for young teens in the Trailblazers series as well as other titles for younger children. She is Editor for Christian Focus' children's imprint, CF4Kids.

ENDORSEMENTS

I always find Billy Graham biographies to be exciting and inspiring. This one, aimed at young readers, is no exception. The author has researched her subject well and begins by telling of his early years on the farm in North Carolina and his conversion. Significant milestones in his ministry are detailed such as his roots with Youth for Christ. There are also brief accounts of several of his missions, such as Los Angeles in 1949, London and Scotland in the 1950s, New York in 1957, India and Australia in the later 1950s and his missions to Russia in the 1980s. You can read about the beginnings of his ministry on radio and television, although perhaps his influence through books and films could have been mentioned too.
It is interesting that the author presents some insights into the thoughts and feelings of Billy Graham's wife Ruth as she supports her husband during his remarkable ministry. At the end we see Graham as a national statesman as he addresses the nation following the tragic events of 9/11. The book finishes with further questions for discussion and a timeline. This is very good account of the man who has preached the gospel to more people than anyone else.

Andrew Young, Fraserburgh

"Catherine balances knowledge of the subject well with personal anecdotes that make the characters come to life. It also makes you want to praise God for them. If you were teaching about famous Christians or wanted to challenge young people about what God could do with their life these would be ideal. Questions at the back of each chapter are helpful for class or group study. The 'how to become Christian' section at the back is a vital inclusion."

Christian Marketplace

"Billy Graham is the most effective world evangelist we have had since the New Testament Apostles.
Thank you Catherine for the careful research and animated writing put into this inspiring story of our time"

Richard Bewes
OBE (1939 – 2019), formerly of All Souls Church, Langham Place, London, England

TECHNICAL DETAILS
8678
Reading Age: 9–14

ISBN 9781845508678
BISAC JNF049180
PRICE £4.79 $7.19

14/11/2026