ENDORSEMENTS

To read this account is to fill us with thankfulness for the Lord's work in history and with hopefulness for… another era of lost–ness.

Edward Donnelly

Beautifully detailed portrait in miniature… all Christians will benefit from learning more about this mighty figure in the great cloud of witnesses.

Lewis Ayres
Professor of Historical Theology, Durham University, Durham, England

A fine balance between a biography of an extraordinary servant of Jesus Christ and an explanation of the beliefs that sustained Patrick.

Michael Ovey
(1958-2017) Principal, Oak Hill Theological College, London

Michael Haykin paints a compelling portrait of this bibliocentric bishop and earnest evangelist. The dedicated missionary and thoughtful theologian that emerges belongs to the Gospel–loving global church and not just the Emerald Isle.
