DESCRIPTION

In this revised and updated title, R.C. Sproul analyses the thinking behind atheism. Using psychological as well as scriptural analysis, this book picks up the thinking of four prominent atheists, showing the pitfalls and biases in their arguments. Though atheism is often heralded as the rational, logical explanation of our world, Sproul shows that it should not to be accepted blindly.

MARKETING POINTS

A classic by R.C. Sproul
