ENDORSEMENTS

Never have I read such a well-grounded, gospel-centered critique of youth sports culture as it exists today. While a difficult reality to face, I hope this book will spur us on to change for the betterment of our kids's souls, and to his glory.

Kristen Hatton

Author of 'Exodus: The Gospel-Centered Life for Students', 'Face Time: Your Identity in a Selfie World' & 'Get Your Story Straight'

Perspective, we are often told, is everything. In this helpful book John Perritt helps Christians, and especially Christian parents, to put sports into perspective—a Christian perspective. This book is a very helpful contribution to a conversation Christians must eagerly engage

R. Albert Mohler

President, The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky

This is a clear, concise and compassionate book that insightfully probes to the heart of an important issue in our day – a Christian attitude to sports. Sport is good but it is not God. Writing with sound biblical theology, vibrant illustrations, memorable quotes and helpful practical application, John Perritt has made a significant contribution to this topic. It's a must read!

Gavin Peacock

Former professional footballer and Director of International Outreach, The Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood.

If Jesus Christ is truly the Lord of all of life, then it's necessary for us to follow Him into the sphere of sport ... playing, parenting, and spectating to His glory. John Perritt offers thoughtful Gospel-grounded guidance for how to engage with God's good gift of play.

Walt Mueller

President, Center for Parent/Youth Understanding
