ENDORSEMENTS

Jesus calls His followers to be disciples who make disciples. Men and women face similar and distinct challenges in obeying Christ's command. The Way Forward provides a fresh look at the obstacles and opportunities men face as they seek to be built up into the image of Christ.

J. Garrett Kell
Pastor, Del Ray Baptist Church, Alexandria, Virginia; author, 'Pure in Heart'

As a pastor with a great desire to build men for the body of Christ, I was thrilled to read Joe Barnard's book, The Way Forward. It is a very practical discipleship itinerary aimed at men, and in doing so addresses one of the great needs of our day. This book is packed full of gospel wisdom which edified me and will serve an individual Christian man or a church men's ministry. Buy it. Read it. Be transformed by it.

Former professional footballer and Director of International Outreach, The Council on Biblical Manhood and Womanhood.

There are multiple resources on discipleship, but Joe Barnard, in The Way Forward, offers a simple 'survival guide' for men who know Jesus and want to take the next step in their spiritual journeys. This short and practical guidebook addresses problems men encounter (e.g., exhaustion, frustration, distraction) and offers meaningful and attainable solutions. These solutions are coupled with action plans that pave clear pathways to genuine growth in Christ.

Ken Boa
President, Reflections Ministries & author of several books including 'Conformed to His Image' and 'Life in the Presence of God'

Joe Barnard has a passion to help young Christian men become more spiritually fit and effective in their families and communities. His book has much insight and a lot of practical help toward that goal. What he desires is more potent servants of Christ, and anyone who aspires to be such a servant will profit much from reading his book.
