Foreword from Dane Ortlund

AUTHOR

Joel Morris is the Executive Director of Union School of Theology in Bridgend, Wales. He is on the leadership team of Grace Community Church, Porthcawl. He was a missionary with Operation Mobilisation on the Logos 2 ship before starting a doctorate and career in Materials Engineering which took him from Aerospace to the Nuclear sector.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is a book is a call to spiritual revolution. Each chapter points us to Jesus, the ultimate revolutionary, and shares the testimony of a faithful Christian who lived and 'all in' for Jesus. A short, snappy book that challenges us to go all in for the gospel and reminds us of the power of living a Jesus–centred life.

Pastor, Grace Church Orkney; Director, 20schemes

I have witnessed the power of God at work in the life of Joel Morris. From a young and restive worker serving on board the missionary ship, MV LOGOS II, to someone with a focused sense of God's purpose in his life. Revolutionary God is about that transformational power. The Gospel that changes lives. This book challenges that longing in you to live a life totally committed to the Lord Jesus Christ.

International Director, Operation Mobilisation

Are you sitting comfortably? Then I'll begin.

Joel is a restless revolutionary, an engineer by background, who gave it all up to help equip the church for a new reformation. This book is his clarion call to the church to go back to its revolutionary roots. Filled with challenges, encouragements, stories and hope, this book will push you deeper into the mission of God.

Are you sitting comfortably? I hope not.
