AUTHOR

Bethany is a full–time homemaker who recently 'retired' from children's ministry after serving for twenty years in four different churches, including most recently thirteen years at the United Christian Church of Dubai. She is a graduate of Samford University where she studied Human Development and Family Studies, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary (MA in Christian Education – Children's Ministry). She loves to write materials to help children better understand the gospel, and has written for several publications. She also spends a lot of her free time writing a food blog and playing with their 1–year–old son.

ENDORSEMENTS

Bethany Darwin has an amazing gift for creatively placing big truths in settings that make it easy and very enjoyable for children to see and appreciate just what those truths are. The songs and activities she has devised will delight not only the children, but the parents who will be thrilled to be able to use such an attractive and reliable guide book.

... a practical, reusable, fun tool to teach your children gospel truths through reading, singing, playing and even cooking together! It would be great to use in the home, at church or given as a gift. We wish we had a multi–purpose resource like this when my kids were younger.
