Daily Readings - John Owen

Lee Gatiss and John Owen

RELEASE DATE 15 NOVEMBER 2022

RELATED TITLES

DESCRIPTION

John Owen (1616–1683) was one of the best known and most prolific English church leaders of the 17th Century. His writings have been a challenge and encouragement to believers throughout the centuries since and have influenced many leaders in the church today. In this attractively bound faux leather book, Lee Gatiss has selected a reading from John Owen's writings for each day of the year. Theologically sharp, these readings will help you to see the majesty of God anew.

MARKETING POINTS

One of the greatest Puritan theologians

365 dated one page readings

Faux leather with ribbon

AUTHOR

Dr. Lee Gatiss is the Director of Church Society, Editor of the NIV Proclamation Bible, and a Lecturer in Church History at Union School of Theology. He lives in Cambridge, UK.

Amongst the best known of the Puritans, John Owen (1616-1683) was a profound and thought provoking pastor-theologian. His writings continue to be widely read and greatly appreciated to this day.

ENDORSEMENTS

What a splendid idea! The abundant riches of John Owen's writings ... in a form that is accessible and easy to absorb.

Simonetta Carr
Author

Lee Gatiss has done us a great service in producing an accessible collection of bite–size chunks of the rich diet offered by Owen. By tracking Owen's life this book provides a great introduction to Owen and his thought. But best of all it enables us to marvel afresh at our glorious Saviour.

Tim Chester
Author and senior faculty member, Crosslands Training

I pray these bite–sized morsels of devotions on the Word with John Owen as commentator, will help believers not only understand Owen, but through him, to know the Lord.

Daniel R. Hyde
Oceanside United Reformed Church, Oceanside, California

It's easy for readers to feel intimidated by the works of England's greatest puritan theologian. But this new book shows how much of Owen's writing has a devotional purpose and, in daily readings of two or three paragraphs, allows readers to build theological stamina over time.

Crawford Gribben
Professor of history, Queen's University, Belfast, Northern Ireland

TECHNICAL DETAILS

SOFTBACK 160 X 110
392 Pages

ISBN 9781527107205
BISAC REL012020
PRICE £19.99 $25.99