DESCRIPTION

We are starving for want of wonder. In what we perceive to be the desert wasteland of daily life and regular responsibilities, our souls hunger for more. God tells us, over and over again, to focus our starving souls on the superb reality of who He is, what He is doing, and what He promises to do for all who trust in Him. And God's invitation to glory in Him is nowhere more explicit than in the repeated command to 'Behold.' Justin O. Huffman invites us to meditate on ten of the occasions the command 'Behold' is used in the New Testament, and to feast on the wonderful truth we find there.

MARKETING POINTS

Invitation to ponder the glorious truth of God's Word

Works through 10 uses of the word 'Behold'

An antidote to lack of wonder

AUTHOR

Justin Huffman is a graduate of Reformed Theological Seminary and pastored in the USA for 20 years. He is lead pastor of Morningstar in Toronto, where he lives with his wife Chau and their four children. Justin strives to awake wonder through God's Word at justinhuffman.org and the Daily Devotion app.

ENDORSEMENTS

Justin Huffman helps us challenge what we truly love, what we spend our time beholding. In a world full of distractions and digital delights, this is a timely call to gaze at the face of Jesus and bask in His glory. Behold provides a corrective lens for us to see that there is more to life and invites us to satisfy our deep soul–hunger by feasting on Jesus, the Son of God. But we're not left there to gorge on glory while the world starves. We must respond in wonder and worship, and by taking the good news to a fatally sick world so they can behold Jesus too.

Joel Morris
Executive Director, Union, Bridgend, Wales

... reorients our minds and hearts away from the small pleasures to the grand wonders of living in a world ruled by God's sovereign hand. Refresh yourself in the streams of this thoroughly biblical worldview, that when adopted, will change everything.

Dustin W. Benge
Managing Director, Unashamed Truth

... points to the all glorious and the awesome – to the wondrous person and work of Jesus Christ. Dear reader, as you read 'Behold' may your heart be wonderstruck at the glories of who Christ is and what He has done.

Christina Fox
Counselor, retreat speaker and author

Sometimes we yawn at God's truths, not because his truths are dull but because our hearts are. In this book, Justin Huffman helps us recapture the beauty and the glory of God and His gospel. If you, like me, are in danger of taking God's truth for granted, 'Behold' will help to reawaken your wonder and worship.
