DESCRIPTION

As a young man, he enjoyed the pleasures that life offered a well educated young man in the 1700s studying at Cambridge University. His interest in religion, however, didn't go much beyond trying to salve his conscience by good works. Yet, one day at the age of 19, he realised his sin could only be dealt with by transferring the guilt of it to another – the Lord Jesus Christ. From that day Charles Simeon was set on a remarkable pathway to spread the good news of Salvation through preaching God's Word.
