DESCRIPTION

From the introduction:

The Beauties of Boston is a book that has been treasured by many Christians in past generations. It is full of rich gospel truth and health–giving spiritual prescriptions. Part of its 'beauty' is that while a big book it is not really a long book, but a series of smaller and manageable passages that will – as The Marrow of Modern Divinity did for Boston himself – stimulate thought, enhance understanding of the gospel, point us to Christ, and strengthen both mind and spirit in the knowledge and service of God.

Introduction from Sinclair Ferguson

AUTHOR

Thomas Boston held a pastorate with a very small Congregation in Simprin, Scotland until 1707. He was an extremely popular preacher, though self–effacing – considering that he had but "small talents." Many of his sermons came to be published after his death at the age of 57.

ENDORSEMENTS

Thomas Boston's sermons and treatises are full of the light of Christ and the fire of the Holy Spirit. Once you read this quotable and spiritually uplifting and convicting volume, I predict that you will want to press on to purchase and read the twelve capacious volumes of his complete works!

Joel R. Beeke
Chancellor, Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

... wonderful treasure trove of theology... points us to the glorious and majestic beauty of our triune God that we might glorify Him and enjoy Him forever.

Burk Parsons
Senior Pastor of Saint Andrew's Chapel, Sanford, Florida and Editor of Tabletalk magazine

Thomas Boston rises to the top in any compilation of the best preacher–theologians worth reading. These selections from his writings will give you an hors d'oeuvre to whet your appetite for more of Boston's gospel–centered reflections. A treasure.

Derek W. H. Thomas
Teaching Fellow, Ligonier Ministries; Retired Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church (ARP), Columbia, South Carolina

Anyone who thinks good theology clogs the arteries of experiential piety is in for a surprise with Thomas Boston. Many of us believe the right doctrines but experience something—or Someone—else. Let Boston's wisdom on a variety of 'hot' topics blow you away.

Michael Horton
J. Gresham Machen Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics, Westminster Seminary California, Escondido, California
