DESCRIPTION

Volume One: The Beginning of Jesus' Earthly Ministry

This engaging collection retells Jesus' birth, childhood, and early ministry. Young readers will discover the wonder of the Christmas story, witness Jesus' childhood visit to the temple, and join John the Baptist as he prepares the way. Follow along as Jesus calls his first disciples, performs his first miracles, and delivers his revolutionary teachings on the mountainside—including the Beatitudes and the Lord's Prayer. Each story includes "What's the Point" sections revealing deeper meanings and thought-provoking questions.

- Beautifully illustrated by Silvana Di Marcello
- "Look Back" and "Check This Out" sections connect stories to other Bible passages
- Follow-on from popular Adventures in Acts books

Perfect for family devotions, Sunday School classes, or independent reading, this volume lays the foundation for understanding Jesus' life and teachings. With accessible language and captivating storytelling, children will be drawn into the greatest story ever told—discovering not just what Jesus did, but who He is and why He came.
