DESCRIPTION

Understand God's Living Word

In an age of competing truth claims and shifting cultural values, how can you know with confidence that the Bible is truly God's Word? This compelling guide unpacks the doctrine of Scripture from a faithful Reformed perspective, helping believers develop an unshakeable trust in God's written revelation.

Through engaging discussion questions, real–world applications, and historical insights, readers will learn to:

- Defend the Bible's reliability with confidence
- Understand how Scripture interprets Scripture
- Apply biblical truth to contemporary challenges
- Grow in their love for God's Word

Perfect for student ministries, small groups, or individual study, this book equips the next generation to stand firm on the authority of Scripture while engaging thoughtfully with today's questions and doubts.

Track is a series of books designed to disciple the next generation in the areas of culture, doctrine, & the Christian life. While the topics addressed aren't always simple, they are communicated in a manner that is.

AUTHOR

Cory Brock is the minister of St Columba's Free Church in Edinburgh, part-time lecturer in theology at Edinburgh Theological Seminary, and the author, editor, or co-author of several books including Neo-Calvinism: a Theological Introduction (Lexham Press).

ENDORSEMENTS

This should be taken and given to people far and wide so that they may know how it is that we have the Bible we have, and why the Bible we have should be read and enjoyed!

Brent Corbin
Executive Director, Reformed Youth Ministries

... Cory helps us to hear the urgent call of God at the heart of the biblical message: God has acted in history, to reconcile the world to Himself through the Cross. The Bible is his invitation to us to come to know Him.

David Strain
Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church, Jackson, Mississippi
