DESCRIPTION

This inspiring collection of stories about girls and women who lived boldly for Christ includes:

Corrie ten Boom: A powerful story about how God's love and forgiveness can exist even in a Nazi concentration camp.

Elaine Townsend: From social star of 1930's Chicago to a Wycliffe missionary in South America and the USSR, Elaine Townsend learned how life can be filled with adventure, by simply saying 'yes' to God.

Gladys Aylward: An unconventional missionary who thwarted authorities, became involved in the Chinese resistance and rescued over 100 children from the invading Japanese army.

Mary Slessor: Mary left the shores of Scotland while only in her early twenties to work with the Calibar tribes in West Africa, to share Jesus with them, and stop superstitions that involved killing twin babies.

Isobel Kuhn: Discover what brought this questioning, antagonistic teenager from doubt to faith in Christ. Find out how she affected the lives of countless people in China and Thailand.

AUTHOR

Having been a teacher, Jean Watson, has gone on to have a career in writing, involving writing lesson material for children geared for RE Lessons and Sunday School. Jean's stories have been broadcast on TV and Radio.

Simona Gorton lives with her husband and three children in an old farmhouse in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, which they love to fill with good food and better friends. Growing things out of the dirt, hearing her children's made-up stories, and reading John Buchan are some of her greatest loves. She has authored youth and adult biographies of Elaine Townsend and worked as the International Operations Manager of 9Marks.

Myrna Grant is a Canadian author who lives in Wheaton, Illinois.

Catherine MacKenzie comes from Scotland and has written several biographies for young teens in the Trailblazers series as well as other titles for younger children. She is Editor for Christian Focus' children's imprint, CF4Kids.

Irene Howat is an award–winning author and poet who lives in Scotland.
