DESCRIPTION

A practical guide to meaningful ministry

Discover how to effectively share Jesus' love with older people and those living with dementia in this practical and compassionate guide by experienced chaplain Ben Boland. Drawing from over fifteen years of ministry experience, Boland provides valuable insights, biblical wisdom, and hands–on strategies for meaningful spiritual care.

Priceless People addresses crucial topics including:

- Biblical foundations for ministry to older adults
- Effective communication strategies for people with dementia
- Practical approaches to pastoral care and discipleship
- Creative ideas for multisensory ministry and worship
- Guidance for navigating end–of–life care
- Tips for conducting dementia–friendly church services

Written for both professionals and volunteers, this accessible resource equips readers with the knowledge and tools needed to overcome common challenges in elder care ministry. Boland combines theological depth with practical applications, offering clear guidance while addressing sensitive topics with wisdom and grace.

AUTHOR

Rev Ben Boland MDiv, Grad Dip (Ageing & Pastoral) has served as an older person's chaplain in Australia for over 15 years. Ben speaks, writes and lectures globally about Christian ministry with older people and people living with dementia.

ENDORSEMENTS

... a compassionate, practical guide to sharing Jesus' love with older adults and those living with dementia. Full of biblical wisdom, real-life insights, and hands-on ministry tools.

Faith in Later Life

With a key focus on praying with and for older people as well as spending time with them, in this book Ben Boland acknowledges that without relationship, good pastoral care is impossible. In Priceless People, Boland uses his experience as a chaplain to show how we can honour and respect older people whilst meeting their spiritual needs.

Karen Martin
