DESCRIPTION

Discover the Joy of Belonging to God's Family

In A Christian's Pocket Guide to Adoption, Joel R. Beeke explores the rich biblical doctrine of adoption and its life-changing significance for true believers. Drawing on Scripture and the insights of the Puritans, Beeke shows how God graciously welcomes sinners into His family, granting them the privileges, assurance, and inheritance of His children.

- Understand the biblical meaning of adoption
- Explore its connection to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit
- Discover the privileges of being God's child
- Learn how adoption shapes Christian identity, assurance, and daily living

A warm and encouraging introduction to one of Christianity's greatest blessings.

Christian's Pocket Guides are concise, accessible books for anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of the Christian faith. Thoughtfully written for both students and curious readers, these pocket-sized guides make their topic approachable without sacrificing depth, offering a trusted companion for personal study, teaching, or discussion.

AUTHOR
