DESCRIPTION

Rediscover the hope at the heart of Christmas

This Advent devotional brings together 25 readings from great Protestant Reformers, including Martin Luther, John Calvin and Thomas Cranmer. Drawing on sermons, prayers and theological writings, Tim Chester explores the wonder of Christ's coming and its significance for our lives.

Discover how the Reformers understood the gift of God's Son: the Saviour who reconciles us to God and secures our eternal inheritance. Each reading includes a Bible passage, an introduction to the Reformer and their writing, and a short reflection.

- Explore Christmas through the rich heritage of the Reformation.
- Deepen your understanding of the incarnation.
- Find fresh encouragement to live with faith and hope this Advent.
