ENDORSEMENTS

The authors faithfully fulfill the apostle Peter's exhortation to give the reason for the hope that they have in Christ.

James N. Anderson
Associate Professor of Theology, Reformed Theological Seminary, Charlotte, North Carolina

For the many honest, open-minded sceptics who do want to reasonably weigh all the evidence, this book will be thought-provoking, stimulating and perhaps even life-changing.

William J. U. Philip
Minister, The Tron Church, Glasgow

Combines good-going apologetics with the narrative of personal stories, all in a thoroughly readable and always engaging way: believers will be emboldened, doubters fortified, and atheists warmly challenged!

Jeremy Middleton

Each of the contributors bring a warmth and rigor that is both personal and fully engaged with the questions our world - and our hearts - ask. This book will help your heart rejoice in the God who is Lord over every square inch of his creation, and whose word is trustworthy and true.
