AUTHOR

Graham Veale is the head of the Religious Education department at the City of Armagh High School, Armagh, Northern Ireland and co-founded saintsandsceptics.org, a web ministry for apologetics. Graham has been married to Nicola for fifteen years and they have two children, Ben and Rebekah. They worship at Richhill Presbyterian Church in County Armagh.

ENDORSEMENTS

With common sense and uncommon clarity, Graham Veale surveys the popular arguments of the New Atheists that have given so many people intellectual indigestion.

Timothy McGrew
Professor of Philosophy, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan

A superb response to the New Atheism's objections to belief in God and the Christian faith... For students whose faith is under attack, this is the survival guide you need.

David Glass
Author, Atheism's New Clothes

I suggested to Richard Dawkins that his simplistic rhetoric generated more heat than light. Dawkins agreed and Graham Veale shows why!

Chris Sinkinson
Lecturer in Old Testament and Apologetics, Moorlands College, Christchurch, Dorset

Sophisticated and positive case for the rationality of Christian belief.

Patrick J. Roche
Tutor in Philosophy of Religion, Irish Baptist College, Moira, County Down, Northern Ireland
