A Little Bird Told Me

Everyday Expressions from Scripture

Timothy Cross

RELEASE DATE 20 JANUARY 2015

RELATED TITLES

MARKETING POINTS

52 everyday sayings from the Bible

Surprising and interesting inclusions

Considers their meanings and origin

AUTHOR

Timothy Cross is a graduate of the University of Wales and an experienced preacher and Bible teacher. He is the author of over thirty Christian books and numerous articles in various Christian periodicals.

ENDORSEMENTS

We all can learn from animals especially a bird. This seems to be such a GREAT book.

Margaret Wrein

Featured sayings include:

The apple of my eye
No room at the Inn
The writing is on the wall
The powers that be
God forbid!
God willing
'He's been made a scapegoat ...'
Worthy of his hire
The patience of Job
'He's seen the light'
Head and shoulders above the rest
A drop in the ocean
A thorn in the flesh
A wolf in sheep's clothing
Be sure your sin will find you out
O ye of little faith
'A man after my own heart'
To give up the ghost
'Don't judge by appearances!'
The salt of the earth
'Let him that is without sin be the first to cast a stone'
'It's a labour of love'
He's fallen from grace
A fly in the ointment
'I've escaped by the skin of my teeth'
'He's a good Samaritan'
A lamb to the slaughter
Manna from heaven
The strait and narrow
'A little bird told me'
Safe and sound
Rise and shine!
'He couldn't lace his boots'
'Thus far and no further'
Holding out an olive branch
A baptism of fire
Entering the lion's den
A leopard doesn't change its spots

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK
224 Pages

ISBN 9781781915530
BISAC REL006000
PRICE £8.99 $14.99