ENDORSEMENTS

Of all the gifts God gives to us, few are more precious and few are more fleeting than the gift of time. Your days are numbered and you are responsible to faithfully steward each one of them for the good of others and the glory of God. This book will teach and encourage you to make the most of the time God gives you.

Tim Challies
Author, 'Seasons of Sorrow'

They say, "time is money" but Sam Walton has no more hours in his week then you. The question is, "What will you do with your 168?" In Your Days Are Numbered, John Perritt combines good news and biblical principles to show us how to make every hour count for this life-and the life that is [soon] to come.

Bob Bevington
Co-author, 'The Bookends of the Christian Life'

... gets right to the heart of the matter and tells you exactly how you ought to be disciplined with your time. This book is ruthlessly practical. I heartedly recommend it to the disciple who desires to honor the Lord with their days.

Wilson A. Shirley
Senior Pastor, Cornerstone Presbyterian Church, Huntsville, Alabama

In a culture that spends its days killing time, wasting time, or managing time, John Perritt urges us to become intentional about how we number our days. He does so not from a sense of guilt or manipulation, but from a rich Gospel basis.

Sean Michael Lucas
Senior Pastor, Independent Presbyterian Church, Memphis, Tennessee
