DESCRIPTION

Devotions to bookend and bless your day.

In his devotional writing, Spurgeon's love for God's word intersects with his love for God's people. The result: a wealth of timeless Biblical meditations with applications that are relevant for contemporary Christians.

Dated from 1st January to 31st December, each day's morning and evening devotion is complete with a scripture reference and accompanying exposition.

Spurgeon's characteristically pithy comments hit home with a wit and elegance rarely found in other writing. Christians young and old will find his words challenging and stimulating.

Complete and unabridged in a beautiful matt tan/blue edition.
