Unafraid of the Sacred Forest

The Birth of a Church in an African Tribe

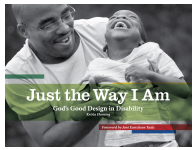

Ronaldo Lidorio

RELEASE DATE 20 JANUARY 2007

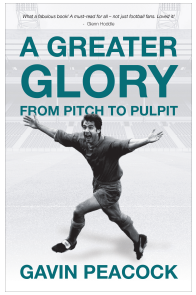

RELATED TITLES

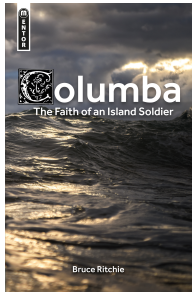

9781845508067
£9.99 $15.99

9781527106796
£11.99 $15.99

9781527103870
£17.99 $24.99

AUTHOR

Ronaldo & Rossana Lidorio are Brazilians who were missionaries in Northern Ghana for many years. Continuing their work amongst unreached nations.

ENDORSEMENTS

"...a modern missionary tale. A Brazilian couple working with WEC describe what they found as they worked with the Konkomba in Northern Ghana, seeing many remarkable things achieved through the lives of his willing servants. They are now 17 churches in this previously unreached area."

Christian Marketplace

Wow!
This is an account of God's great power, and the outworking of Christ's promise that once He was lifted up (of His manner of death) He really will draw all men to Himself. It is also a much-needed account where the missionaries succeeded in graciously affording the local people all they needed to grapple with, and then themselves be engaged in all it means to be called out of darkness and into such marvellous Light.

Chris Stevenson, Canada

"Packed with heart-warming stories and amazing accounts of how lives were changed, this book is bound to be a great blessing to the reading public"

British Church Newspaper

"We in WEC seek to reach the remaining unevangelized people on earth in the shortest possible time. Here is a remarkable account of this happening in Africa. This heart-warming story shows how God used a remarkable Brazilian WECer couple as church planters among a section of the Konkomba people in Ghana, West Africa. May this book inspire you to pray for and go to other peoples still without the light of the Gospel!"

Patrick Johnstone
WEC Interational Regional Director for Europe & Author Emeritus, Operation World

TECHNICAL DETAILS

TRADE PAPERBACK
128 Pages

ISBN 9781845502355
BISAC BIO018000
PRICE £6.99 $10.99