A life–changing read

AUTHOR

J. I. Packer (1926–2020) was named by Time Magazine as one of the 25 most influential evangelicals alive. He was the Board of Governors' Professor of Theology at Regent College, Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.

ENDORSEMENTS

"This is a good book for young Christians seeking a more profound understanding of doctrine and a good refresher course for older hands"

The Gospel Magazine

"A doctrinal Solomon... Mediating debates on everything from a particular Bible translation to the acceptability of free-flowing Pentecostal spirituality, Packer helps unify a community that could easily fall victim to its internal tensions."
