AUTHOR

Irene Howat is an award–winning author and poet who lives in Scotland.

ENDORSEMENTS

A very honest, easy to read, acount of how God can use an ordinary individual to change hundreds of lives for His glory. Very encouraging for those thinking about missionary work, very informative for those wanting to know what missionaries really get up to and a really enjoyable read for everyone else.

Andrew Moody, missionary in Uganda

"This is a most readable account of how an assuming Scottish girl became a vital part of God's plan for disadvantaged children in Kenya."
