RELEASE DATE 20 MARCH 2010

DESCRIPTION

AUTHOR

Irene Howat is an award-winning author and poet who lives in Scotland. She has published many biographical books for all ages and is particularly well-known for her biographical material. She has written many books about the lives of different Christians from around the world. She has also written an autobiographical work entitled 'Pain My Companion'.

ENDORSEMENTS

A very honest, easy to read, account of how God can use an ordinary individual to change hundreds of lives for His glory. Very encouraging for those thinking about missionary work, very informative for those wanting to know what missionaries really get up to and a really enjoyable read for everyone else.

Andrew Moody, missionary in Uganda

"This is a most readable account of how an assuming Scottish girl became a vital part of God's plan for disadvantaged children in Kenya."
