MARKETING POINTS

Wisdom for life and community from James, the brother of Jesus

Cultural and Scriptural context, themes, structure

Perfect for Bible study

AUTHOR

Christopher Morgan is Dean of the School of Christian Ministries and Professor of Theology, California Baptist University, Riverside, California.

B. Dale Ellenburg is Pastor of Dotson Memorial Baptist Church, Maryville, Tennessee. Prior to that he was Vice-President of Academics at Mid-America Baptist Seminary, Cordova, Tennessee.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is good reading and instruction for the Christian and the unbeliever but especially for the church. Although the lessons taught are God are difficult to put in to practice the outcome of the compliance will be God honouring.

The Gospel Magazine

James was a wonderful theologian, but he also was involved in people's lives in a practical way on a daily basis. His writing comes from the heart of a man who understood that Christianity was supposed to produce good works... genuine 'shoe-leather Christians'... live what they believe.

Steve Gaines
Pastor, Great Bellevue Baptist, Memphis, Tennessee

Closely tied to the text of Scripture... the writing is clear and accessible... biblical exposition is applied to life... All in all, this is a solid and useful commentary written by two pastor-scholars to help the church be the church as God intended.

Robert A. Peterson
Theologian, editor, and co–author, 'Jesus In Prophecy: How Christ's Life Fulfills Biblical Predictions'
