DESCRIPTION

AUTHOR

John Benton is Director of Pastoral Support for The Pastors' Academy at London Seminary. John & his wife Ann have written a number of books and at present are involved in a church planting venture. They are often asked to speak at Christian conferences.

ENDORSEMENTS

How to make a small church great is dealt with the ideal of living near to your church and being faithful to its work. John Benton issues a solemn warning: 'it may well be that the present time is an irrecoverable moment for the church in our land'.

Grace Magazine

"A thought-provoking book which helps the reader re-examine the reasons why he or she is worshipping in a particular church. It is also very helpful for someone moving to an area and making decisions about where to worship."

Woman Alive

"Highly recommended"
