A glimpse into local church ministry

AUTHOR

ENDORSEMENTS

If you're struggling with feeling that local church ministry is a waste of time, this book is a great remedy.

Timothy Raymond

"I trust this book will go some way towards helping us all understand the way the local church can be such a blessing to God's people."

Phillip Jensen
Dean of Sydney at St Andrew?s Cathedral, Sydney, Australia

"The godly character and faithful ministry of these two remarkable men shines through the pages. Both of them shunned personal glory and empire-building for the love of their Lord and the building of his kingdom."

Richard Cunningham
Former Director, Universities and Colleges Christian Fellowship (UCCF), United Kingdom

"This book is both challenging and inspiring. Mark Ashton's eight convictions at the start and the emphasis throughout on the centrality and power of God's word are vitally important for all churches in any setting.."

Vaughan Roberts
Rector of St Ebbe's, Oxford and Director of Proclamation Trust
