ENDORSEMENTS

"The original edition of this book appeared in 1973, but the authors have revised an expanded the material for this edition, consciously responding to the 'Toronto Blessing' movement . . . good exegetical treatment on passages in 1 Corinthians 12 and Ephesians 4. The chapter on Gifts for the Whole Church is well-balanced, dealing with straightforward gifts such as 'faith' and 'acts of mercy', but also handling such matters as 'gifts of healing', 'speaking in tongues' and 'prophecy' . . . final section of the book covers the area of The Benefits of Spiritual Gifts, concentrating on worship, service and evangelism. In this a plea for unity and understanding among those who love the Lord, a strand that runs throughout the book, is highlighted."
