Preach with passion

Study of Thomas Watson, beloved Puritan preacher

AUTHOR

Dr. Jack Hughes pastors in Louisville, KY. He received his theological education from The Master's Seminary and Westminster Theological Seminary and loves equipping men for the work of the ministry. Jack also helped train men as an adjunct professor at The Master's Seminary. Jack and his wife Lisa have been married since 1984, have two grown sons, a married daughter, and two grandchildren. Jack is the author of 'Expository Preaching with Word Pictures' and the proprietor and curator of www.drivennails.com, which is devoted to training preachers and Bible teachers.

ENDORSEMENTS

Unbelievably rich, Watson's messages still communicate today with a power and clarity that is simply breathtaking. Jack Hughes has done a tremendous job... This book will be a valuable tool for any preacher seeking to improve his skill in handling and communicating the Word of God.

John MacArthur
(1939-2025) Chancellor, The Master's University and Seminary; Pastor–Teacher, Grace Community Church, Sun Valley, California

Thomas Watson compelled people to listen to him whether he was preaching or writing, by the vivid word pictures that he painted, both at his desk and in the pulpit. This rich study should be a treasure in every preacher's library. I highly recommend it.

Richard Mayhue
Research Professor of Theology Emeritus, The Master's Seminary, Sun Valley, California

Jack Hughes tells that there is no hiding place for the lazy preacher who is contented to preach in monochrome.

David Meredith
Mission Director, Free Church of Scotland, Edinburgh

Instructive, fresh and interesting.

Jay Adams
Author & Retired Seminary Professor, Enoree, South Carolina
