AUTHOR

Richard Bewes (1934 – 2019) was the author of several beloved books of faith including 'Talking About Prayer', '150 Pocket Thoughts', and 'The Goodnight Book'. Bewes was the rector of All Souls Church in the centre of London from 1983 until his retirement in 2004. In 2005 he was awarded an OBE for his services to the Church of England.

ENDORSEMENTS

... clear and understandable, balanced, succinct, and full of spiritual common sense... Take in the spiritual food and instruction here and you will grow in understanding, faith and usefulness. Strongly recommended

Evangelical Times

Bewes provides direct, clear, concise and relevant answers to these questions. Above all the answers are clearly biblical and scriptural principals are carefully applied. The material is laid out in short, bite-sized chapters and written in a simple readable style. The reader is directed to further sources of study on many of the questions asked. This is an excellent resource and should prove helpful to a wide audience.

CLC Book Reviews

"...the accumulated wisdom and illustration from decades of mulling over some very difficult questions - wonderfully distilled down to the key points."

Rico Tice
Evangelist; Co–founder of Christianity Explored Ministries

"...gives deeply thought-out, carefully informed answers to many of the questions most troublesome to contemporary humanity."

Dallas Willard, Professor of Philosophy, University of Southern California
