ENDORSEMENTS

In Curing the Heart, Drs. Eyrich and Hines present a truly biblical model of counseling, and do so in a comprehensive, comprehendible manner. In the heritage of the great Puritan pastors, the authors equip readers to become skillful soul physicians who reconcile and guide believers toward growth in Christ. Focusing on the sufficiency and relevancy of God's Word, Curing the Heart presents the Bible's message about humanity in a living and dynamic way, and shows how to use the Bible to change hearts with God's changeless truth.

Robert W. Kellemen
Executive Director, Biblical Counseling Coalition, Lafayette, Indiana

Of course this book will cure the heart of anyone especially those who are in the field of Biblical counselling. We can see the wonderful model of biblical counselling in this book. and also we can use this as a study material. I wish all the best to the author.

Rev. Thomas Kurian Anchery. A priest and pastoral counselor in the Mar Thoma Syrian Church. address: Niravathu House, Pariyaram,Post; Kottayam; Kerala; India

"This is a wonderful guide to use for learning how to counsel those in need, focusing on importance of building that relationship and trust. I felt that authors Eyrich and Hines did an excellent job in preparing this book and providing training for people interested in counselling others. Every pastor or counsellor should have a copy."

Tricia Bleau, Teens 4 Jesus

"Dr. Howard Eyrich serves on the Pastoral Staff at Briarwood Presbyterian Church. He has not only developed, but put into practice, the model of Biblical Counseling which is developed for you in this book. Our Lord has used him successively to minister to many people in our congregation and community, to train others and to multiply biblical counseling through the transferable model that you will find on the following pages. The blessing of this ministry is evident, not only in the lives of the people that it touches, but also in the many lay people that he has trained to assist in the counseling ministry at Briarwood."
