ENDORSEMENTS

If the historic confessions are to be preserved for the future, it will take the kind of sympathetic historic description and effective doctrinal argumentation displayed in this book..

Mark A. Noll
Author of 'America's Book: The Rise and Decline of a Bible Civilization, 1794–1911'

...a most worthy undertaking and one that is quite timely not only because of the anniversary of the Assembly but also because of the need in Presbyterian and Reformed circles for scholarly work on the Reformed tradition and its confessions.

Richard A. Muller
P. J. Zondervan Professor of Historical Theology, Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids, Michigan

Derek Thomas has written a most interesting study of the eschatology of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Assembly. This volume will be of value to all with a serious interest in the work of the Westminster Assembly.

David McKay
Professor of Systematic Theology, Ethics and Apologetics, Reformed Theological College, Belfast, Northern Ireland
