John Calvin

His Life And Influence

Robert L. Reymond

RELEASE DATE 20 SEPTEMBER 2008

RELATED TITLES

DESCRIPTION

AUTHOR

Robert L. Reymond (1932-2013) taught for more than 25 years on the faculties of Covenant Theological Seminary (St. Louis, Missouri) and Knox Theological Seminary (Ft. Lauderdale, Florida). He held degrees from Bob Jones University and did post-doctoral studies at Fuller Seminary, New York University, Union Seminary (New York), Tyndale House, Cambridge, and Rutherford House, Edinburgh.

TECHNICAL DETAILS

LARGE TRADE PAPERBACK
160 Pages

ISBN 9781857929669
BISAC BIO018000
PRICE £9.99 $14.99

ENDORSEMENTS

Robert L. Reymond's John Calvin: His Life and Influence is an excellent introductory work on the life, work, and writings of the often misunderstood, John Calvin. This book had been reprinted in 2008 in anticipation for the 500th anniversary of John Calvin's birth taking place this year. It is fitting to spend this year focusing on the life and teachings of this great servant of God, and Reymond is a helpful guide along the way.

Reymond is former Professor of Systematic Theology at Knox Theological Seminary, Fort Lauderdale, FL, and now regular pulpit supply at Holy Trinity Presbyterian Church, Fort Lauderdale, FL. The four chapters of this book comprise a series of four popular lectures the author gave on four consecutive Wednesday nights in February 2002 at Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church in Fort Lauderdale, FL.

Chapter 1 (or lecture 1) is God's Preparation of the Future Reformed. Here Reymond highlights the young live of the soon–to–be reformer, his studies, his conversion, and how God shaped him through all his experiences and education.

Chapter 2 (or lecture 2) is The Young Reformer and His Institutes. This chapter moves from his young life to his beginning as a reformer and especially in the writing of his Institutes, the magnum opus of the Protestant Reformation. This point goes to Calvin's expulsion from Geneva.

Chapter 3 (or lecture 3) is The Mature Reformer of Geneva and His Accomplishments. This chapter moves to Calvin's life outside of Geneva, his return to Geneva and the importance of this period especially in his writings.

Chapter 4 (or lecture) finalizes the life of Calvin and deals with his last years in Geneva, his emphasis on his influence on others all over the world, and the difficulties in his life especially the burning of Servetus.

It concludes with 3 appendices looking at opposing biographies of Calvin, his influence on Western history, and recommend biographies on Calvin.

Why another biography when there body of secondary literature on Calvin and Calvin studies is probably only rivaled by those of Jonathan Edwards? Reymond's book provides a helpful, positive, but not hagiographical look at a much