DESCRIPTION

MARKETING POINTS

Living with faith through persecution and disease

A martyr for Christ

Edited by Michael Haykin

AUTHOR

Brian Arnold joined the Phoenix Seminary faculty in 2015 and teaches courses in Systematic Theology and Church History. He has prior teaching experience as a Garrett Fellow at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, where he served as a lecturer.

ENDORSEMENTS

Brian Arnold guides us to a compelling voice from the past at a time when we desperately need wisdom for the present. This is a valuable book for those seeking a formative conversation with the Church Fathers. We would do well to listen.

Megan DeVore

Associate Professor of Church History and Early Christian Studies, Colorado Christian University, Colorado

A fascinating, stimulating and easy to read book on a theologian who loved church. It is a book about a great man that should change and challenge and bring joy every time you meet with and think about your church.

Steve Levy

Pastor, Mount Pleasant Baptist Church, Swansea, Wales

Arnold purposes neither to re-make Cyprian in his own image nor to discard the Carthaginian bishop on the ash heap of history. Arnold rather insists that Cyprian can serve as a stimulating conversation partner within the contemporary context.

Paul Hartog

Professor of Theology, Faith Baptist Theological Seminary, Ankeny, Iowa

Immensely rewarding and full of exquisite detail, this book is a winner in every respect. More, please.

Derek W. H. Thomas

Teaching Fellow, Ligonier Ministries; Retired Senior Minister, First Presbyterian Church (ARP), Columbia, South Carolina
