AUTHOR

Wayne Richards is a Presbyterian elder in Sydney. He has been the Executive Director for the Council of Churches in New South Wales, a director of Christian schools, a director of the Reformers Bookshop as well as CEO of the Presbyterian Church in New South Wales for over thirteen years.

ENDORSEMENTS

Wayne Richards directs our thoughts to God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit in an engaging and thoughtful way. Using the alphabet as a memory aid, he outlines 26 attributes of God, which should encourage and cheer in the daily grind of life.

Carine MacKenzie
Best–selling author of children's books, Inverness, Scotland

You hold in your hand a little book. But what enormous, priceless treasures are contained within these pages! Almost without realising it you will be drawn to consider the great timeless truths of God's nature and character.

Colin Buchanan
Christian Children's Recording artist and author, Sydney, Australia

How much more healthy in mind and spirit would we be if we focused more on God and less on ourselves?– From the introduction

The 26 devotionals, each beginning with a letter of the alphabet, have beautiful Scripture texts verifying the truth of what has just been postulated. The great benefit of this devotional will be found if one spends time meditating on its content rather than simply reading it through.

George I. Macaskill
Minister, Stornoway, Isle of Lewis

Finding reliable answers to eternal questions begins with knowing one's spiritual ABCs. The Notebook for Eternity is a delightful, helpful primer for all who long to know the one true, living God.

Kenneth B. Wingate
Author and Bible teacher
