ENDORSEMENTS

Our sinful hearts incline us to turn away from the Lord, and we find ourselves spiritually in the wastelands. This little book is a winsome word to believers who struggle or stray, to return to Christ the friend of sinners. Help is given in diagnosing our spiritual need, pointing us to Christ, and taking practical steps for a more constant walk with the Lord. Warmly commended!

Bill James

Principal, London Seminary, London, UK

The good news of the gospel is that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus is prone to restore his prone to wander sons and daughters. If you're prone to wander (and who isn't) or know someone who is (and who doesn't) read and share this book.

C. L. Chase

Author of Grace-Focused Optimism

Natalie writes as a friend talking to a friend, balancing personal honesty and sympathy with the wisdom and challenge of Biblical truth. This book did my soul good. As one who is 'prone to wander' it engaged my mind, warmed my heart, and redirected my steps towards the God I love.

Jane McNabb

Conference speaker and Chair of London Women's Convention

Natalie's gospel-filled warnings mix clarity with compassion. I hope many will be kept from shipwreck by the earthy wisdom of this book.
