AUTHOR

Helen Roseveare (1925–2016) went to the Congo as a missionary between 1953 and 1973. A pioneer of vital medical work in the rainforests of this region, she had a major impact long after she left. Through many trials, she lived out her life striving to serve her Lord with every day and encouraging those around her to do the same.

ENDORSEMENTS

… what is captured in these Living Words is Helen Roseveare's unique ability to be biblical, winsome, honest, warm–hearted, practical, compelling – all at once! She turns the gospel like a treasure in her hands, sharing her wonder at God's goodness in Christ. Her words seem to come off the page with a smile and a mischievous twinkle that says, "You know, he's good for every one of his promises."
