DESCRIPTION

The Bible teaches us that God always does what He says He will do. It is a great comfort to know, that God's plans and purposes are not changed by men and women who make wrong or foolish choices. In a way that we cannot understand, God rules over everything, so that His promises are always fulfilled. Young and old, rich and poor all appear in the Bible and through them we see examples of people who made wise and foolish decisions. This book will help you to focus on God's Word and His wisdom guiding you in your own day to day choices.

Jean Stapleton made nursing her career before she became a wife and a mother. She was involved with beach missions for a number of years and has worked with children of various ages and backgrounds in the local church and in her own home.

ENDORSEMENTS

This second volume of Good Choice, Bad Choices gives children further opportunity to be inspired or warned by Biblical characters and the decisions they made. This book will reinforce the fact that everyone faces good and bad choices in life and, by God's grace, even children can find strength and courage to choose well.

Heather Winslow LeFebvre
Author of 'The History of Christmas: 2,000 Years of Faith, Fable and Festivity'

This book can help children choose well and, most importantly, trust in the God who redeems our choices—even the bad ones—as he unfolds his beautiful plan.
