AUTHOR

(1959 – 2020) Originally from Yorkshire, Dominic Smart was minister of Gilcomston Church in Aberdeen from 1998 to 2015. An author and conference speaker, he was married to Marjorie and they have four grown–up children.

ENDORSEMENTS

Dominic's biblical and practical teaching on this vital subject made a deep impact on many lives at the Keswick Convention. I'm delighted to see the message now in book form and believe it will have a similar impact on many readers.

International Director Emeritus, Operation Mobilisation

Legalism is a recurring problem for Christians, regardless of our theological labels. It has many disguises. Dominic brilliantly exposes them for what they are and points to the solution: not license to do as I please, not mere 'law' to stop my doing do, but the liberating Lordship of Jesus.
