DESCRIPTION

This giftbox collection of exciting stories of heroes of the faith will fascinate 9– to 14–year–olds. Each book in this box set contains the story of a man who preached the word of God and who God used powerfully. Some of the characters you'll meet didn't seem like likely preachers, but see how God equips those he calls to spread his gospel. These biographies follows the trailblazer's journey to faith, and on to the work that God had planned for them. With lots of dialogue, these engaging stories show how God uses normal individuals to bring about his purpose.

AUTHOR

George F. MacLean, married to Mary, is an elder in Smithton Free Church outside Inverness, Scotland. As would be expected of a former English teacher, he enjoys reading, but also painting, gardening, angling & walking. He enjoys visits to Cambridge to see his son, daughter–in–law & grandchildren.

Christopher Catherwood is Martyn Lloyd–Jones' grandson. He has taught 20th century and church history at the Cambridge–based INSTEP programme and is an Associate of Churchill College, Cambridge.

Christian George is Curator of the Spurgeon Library and an Associate Professor of Historical Theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Missouri.

Lucille Travis is the author of several children's books and delights in encouraging young writers. A former college lecturer, she has also been a storyteller in Awana clubs and has held children's writing workshops.
