DESCRIPTION

Long ago in Israel, God sent a young prophet named Zechariah (whose name means, "the Lord remembers") to encourage his people. They had stopped rebuilding God's temple and had become distracted and discouraged, so God showed Zechariah eight visions to encourage the people to finish the temple and live right. Brian Wright and John Brown show how Zechariah's prophecy ultimately points to Jesus.

ENDORSEMENTS

The God's Daring Dozen series is made up of wonderful little books that will bless curious little people, and the not–so–little people who have the privilege of reading to them.

Tim Challies
Author, 'Seasons of Sorrow'

A tremendous resource for Christian families.

Evangelical Times

These are excellent. What a gift to children and the church.

Bruce Waltke
Professor of Old Testament, Emeritus, Reformed Theological Seminary, Orlando, Florida

Brian Wright and John Brown have done the church a great service with this children's series. Each book faithfully summarizes the content of the prophet's teaching and presents it in a way that is concise, clear, and easily understandable.
