DESCRIPTION

This attractive, illustrated hardback will invite children into the glorious truth of how much God loves them. We all need to know that we are loved. Not with a love that will fade or give up, not because we've done something special or have been particularly good, but just because we are. We all need to know about God's love.

Inspired by the well–loved words of Romans 8 and Matthew 10, children's book editor Catherine Mackenzie shows children that nothing can separate them from the love of God. Accompanied by beautiful illustrations, this book will bless families who read it together with this powerful reminder.
