DESCRIPTION

From Yorkshire to the Far East: Hudson Taylor's Extraordinary Mission

Discover Hudson Taylor's transformation from a Yorkshire chemist's son to revolutionary missionary who changed China forever. Breaking conventions by adopting Chinese dress and customs, Taylor established the groundbreaking China Inland Mission while facing riots, tragedy, and seemingly impossible challenges. Catherine Mackenzie masterfully portrays his extraordinary adventure, unwavering trust in God's provision, and the innovative mission approach that brought Christianity to China's unreached interior regions.

- Part of the Hall of Faith series of introductory biographies
- Pioneering force in Chinese evangelism
- Inspiring life dedicated to God

This inspiring narrative showcases Taylor's revolutionary approach to missions and his unshakable trust in God's provision, even when facing seemingly impossible challenges. Perfect for readers interested in Christian biography, missionary stories, or anyone seeking inspiration from a life fully dedicated to following God's call despite tremendous obstacles.
