DESCRIPTION

Find lasting confidence in Christ's righteousness

In Clothed with Confidence, Morgan Renew shows how the doctrine of imputation transforms the Christian life. More than forgiveness, believers are clothed in Christ's perfect righteousness and united to his resurrection life. With biblical depth and pastoral warmth, this book connects justification to everyday struggles like guilt, fear, prayer, obedience, and suffering. Accessible and deeply encouraging, it offers weary Christians fresh assurance, hope, and joy rooted in the finished work of Christ.

Readers will discover:

- How Christ's righteousness secures confidence before God
- Why justification changes everyday Christian living
- The connection between resurrection and assurance
- Freedom from guilt, fear, and spiritual insecurity
- Practical encouragement for prayer, obedience, and in suffering

AUTHOR

Morgan Renew is an associate pastor at Redeemer Church of Dubai and teaches at Gulf Theological Seminary, where he helps train up future church leaders and planters across the region. Before moving to Dubai, he was a pastor at Christ Church Gladesville in Sydney. He also completed a PhD at Sydney Missionary and Bible College, diving deep into how justification and obedience fit together in the Christian life. Morgan lives in Dubai with his wife, Olivia, and their four teenage children.

ENDORSEMENTS

This is rich theology with wonderfully practical consequences: because we are united to the risen Christ, we are freed and empowered to love in ways we never could by ourselves.

Ray Galea
Senior Pastor, Fellowship Dubai

Deeply theological and incredibly practical, Morgan Renew explains clearly how Christ's death and resurrection transforms us, so that we want to obey our Father and can obey with the Spirit's help. A book you'll come back to year after year.

Linda Allcock
Author of 'Deeper Still' and 'Head Heart Hands'

Writing with the precision of a good scholar and the sensitivity of a good pastor, Renew presents these glorious doctrines for his reader in a fresh way, inevitably resulting in worship. This book should be widely disseminated in the Church.

Samuel G. Parkison
Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology, Church History, and Philosophy, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; author, 'To Gaze Upon God: The Beatific Vision in Doctrine, Tradition, and Practice'

If ... you'd like to be astonished by God's grace all over again, read 'Clothed with Confidence'. Learn why we dread no condemnation. Grow in boldness before God's throne. Jesus, and all in him, is ours!

Gloria Furman
Author, 'A Tale of Two Kings' and 'Labor with Hope'
